A Wheeling Boy Promoted.

Ex-City Clerk Frank Bowers has been promoted by Commissioner Mason to the position of internal revenue agent. Frank has made a good record since he entered the service, and his promotion was deserved, and his friends here will be pleased to hear of his good fortune.

A Pleasant Reception.

Miss Maggie Magee tendered her visitor, Miss Maggie McPherson, of Detroit, a delightful reception last evening at her residence on North Eoff street, previous to Miss McPherson's departure for her home Friday. Miss Magee will accompany her visitor to her home. About fifteen couples were present. Elegant refreshments were served at a reasonable hour.

A Genuine Surprise Party.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Lura Williams at the residence of her father, Mr. W. H. Williams, 4605 Jacob street last evening. It was a genuine surprise party, for Miss Lura was visiting a neighbor at the moment her friends called, and had to be sent for. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner, being brought to a close by a toothsome repast.

Union District Republicans.

The meeting of the Union District Republican club called for to-night has been postponed until to-night one week on account of the Central Republican Headquarters having been engaged for a business men's meeting. This postponement should work to the advantage of the club as it will give the boys time to hustle and talk the matter up among themselves.

Washington District Republicans.

The Republicans of Washington district will hold a meeting this evening at the club room, No. 519 Main street. The purpose of the meeting is to organize a club, good speakers, however, will be present and entertain the audience. It behooves the Republicans of this district to turn out to-night and show their interest in the cause. Good results can only be accomplished by hard work, and if proper efforts are made the ward will be safe for Harrison and protection.

Circuit Court.

In part II of the circuit court yesterday, Judge Paull presiding, only two cases were heard.

John Harding and Ben Johnson, indicted for felony, both plead guilty to petit larceny, and were sentenced to 184 days in jail, but as both had been in jail since May, the court allowed that time to be counted in the sentence, so they will remain in jail only twenty more days.

The jury in the case of Earl Carson and Nelson Foster, charged with petit larceny, was chosen, and adjourned until to-day. The other jurors were discharged until Monday.

"The Tyrolean."

Another large and very well pleased audience greeted "The Tyrolean" at the Grand Opera House last night. Two very strong features of the play is the work done by both Little Jessie and Master Clyde. Both children are less than four years old, and their acting is both funny and cute. The Grand Opera will have a family matinee to-day at 2 p. m., and the last performance will take place to-night. "The Tyrolean" has given very good satisfaction, and should have a large house for the closing performance to-night.

Arizona Joe.

Arizona Joe and company will be at the grand the last three nights of this week. He is said to carry all the scenery for his plays this season, and will introduce many novelties not heretofore presented here. In addition to his horses and dogs he will introduce a number of specialties. Arizona Joe is one of the best rifle shots in the country, and is as good an actor as you will find among the performers of his class. He is always greeted with large audiences here.

"The Limited Mail."

One of the largest houses of the season, especially in the gallery, greeted "The Limited Mail" at the Opera House last evening. The play is fully as sensational as the author claims. The mechanical effects are very effective and accomplish the design aimed at—bringing the gallery to its feet. There is enough dialogue in the piece to engage the serious attention of that class of theatre-goers who enjoy plays of the character of "The Limited Mail."

The Secret Art of Beauty lies not in cosmetics, but is only in pure blood, and a healthy performance of the vital functions, to be obtained by using Burdock Blood Bitters.

HOME AGAIN.

Mr. A. W. Campbell Arrives in Wheeling After Fourteen Months Abroad.

Mr. A. W. Campbell, who landed last week in New York from the Lahn, reached Wheeling yesterday morning. He is in splendid health and is glad to get home. Speaking of the ease with which English-speaking travelers get along on the continent Mr. Campbell said that everywhere persons are found who speak the language which is destined to become the universal tongue. Hotel servants speak it and sales people in the shops.

In first-class hotels the porter, a general utility man and a person of importance, likely enough a Swiss, is sure to include English in his polyglot equipment. But important as this functionary is he is not above his share of the always-expected tip, and when the traveler is about to take his leave, and everybody of the serving sort in the house turns out with everybody else, the obliging porter expects the largest tip of all.

If you drop in for a glass of beer the man who brings it to you expects drinklet equal to one-fourth the price of the beer, and this is all he gets for his services. Coming across the ocean the tourist will be expected to pay out about $10 in tips, mostly to persons who have rendered him very little service. If you have soap furnished by the hotel you must pay for it. Except in a few instances, as in Berlin, where there is electric light in the rooms of the best hotels, candles are furnished and charged for at a good price. Some American travelers provide themselves with chambermaids to take care of them.

Food is high, as Mr. Campbell has already related in his letters to the INTELLIGENCER. In Italy poultry is ever present, dry, tasteless, lacking the savor to which the American palate is accustomed. As to the cost of living to the traveler, Mr. Campbell says that the estimated cost of $3 a day allows no margin for extravagance. A modest meal in a restaurant makes so big a hole in two dollars that what is left is soon gone in tips. "You may say this," said Mr. Campbell, "that the Lahn is one of the best ships in the world, and the North German is the greatest of all steamship companies."

Mr. Campbell will visit friends in Brooke county, and then it is hoped that he will take an active part in the campaign.

Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM.

Formal Opening last Evening—Coming Lectures and Concerts.

The formal opening of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium took place last evening with a large audience present. The evening was devoted to athletic exercises and the selections of teams to represent the association in the new game of basketball during the coming season. Plans were also discussed and a committee on the gymnasium appointed for the year. Light refreshments were served during the course of the evening. Four handsome medals are to be awarded at the close of the season for best all around development, regular attendance at the gymnasium class, best form in gymnastics and for new members.

A new departure has been made in the physical department. Three classes will be conducted each week for boys under fourteen years of age, in which careful systematic training will be given. Ladies' and misses' classes will also be held. The classes will be as follows:

Business men—Monday at 4:30 and 8 p. m.; Wednesday at 4:30 p. m.
Young men—Tuesday and Thursday at 8 p. m.; Friday at 8:30 p. m.
Beginners—Tuesday and Thursday at 7:30 p. m.
Juniors—Monday at 7 p. m.; Thursday at 4:30 p. m.; Saturday at 10:30 a. m.
Ladies—Tuesday at 4:30 p. m.; Wednesday at 8 p. m.; Friday at 4 p. m.

The association starts out with brighter prospects than ever before. The entire building has been brightened up during the summer, the reception room receiving especial attention. The opening entertainment will occur on the 27th of this month, on which evening Mr. Frank W. Nesbitt and Mr. Charles S. Brilles, both being from this city, will deliver a number of recitations. They have been students of Prof. Byron W. King's school of elocution, of Pittsburgh. The regular lecture and concert course will be one of the best the association has ever given. The concert course will open October 31 with the Boston Stars; December 2, the Schuman Lady Quartette and Prof. W. F. Wentworth; December 31, the Swedish Quartette; January 19, Ladies' Crescent Banjo and Guitar club; February 7, English Hand-Bell Ringers.

The lecture course will be opened October 18 by Rev. John B. Koene, on "The New Aristocracy;" December 8 Hon. Henry Hall, "The Coming Man;" January 31, Charles H. Caton, "Wellington and Napoleon;" February 21, Prof. John B. DeMotte, A. M. Ph. D.; assisted by Truman W. Harrington, on "Electricity, Its Nature and Possibilities," illustrated; March 3, Robert Nourse, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

The True Laxative Principle of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious.
